

Literature Circles Discussion #1

PASSAGE MASTER

Choose ONE of the four passages on your job sheet.

Tell everyone in your group to turn to the page where the passage is located and show them where the passage begins. Read the passage out loud as other members read along.

Then, read your explanation of the line's significance.

Encourage other members to discuss their thoughts on it.

Literature Circles Discussion #1

PASSAGE MASTER

Choose ONE of the four passages on your job sheet.

Tell everyone in your group to turn to the page where the passage is located and show them where the passage begins. Read the passage out loud as other members read along.

Then, read your explanation of the line's significance.

Encourage other members to discuss their thoughts on it.

Literature Circles Discussion #1

PASSAGE MASTER

Choose ONE of the four passages on your job sheet.

Tell everyone in your group to turn to the page where the passage is located and show them where the passage begins. Read the passage out loud as other members read along.

Then, read your explanation of the line's significance.

Encourage other members to discuss their thoughts on it.

Literature Circles Discussion #1

PASSAGE MASTER

Choose ONE of the four passages on your job sheet.

Tell everyone in your group to turn to the page where the passage is located and show them where the passage begins. Read the passage out loud as other members read along.

Then, read your explanation of the line's significance.

Encourage other members to discuss their thoughts on it.

Literature Circles Discussion #1

PASSAGE MASTER

Choose ONE of the four passages on your job sheet.

Tell everyone in your group to turn to the page where the passage is located and show them where the passage begins. Read the passage out loud as other members read along.

Then, read your explanation of the line's significance.

Encourage other members to discuss their thoughts on it.