

Literature Circles Discussion #1

QUESTION COMMANDER

Choose ONE of the four questions on your job sheet.

First, explain the directions on your sheet to other group members.

Then, read your thinking question and share your possible answers with details from the story.

Encourage other members to discuss their thoughts on your question and possible answer.

Literature Circles Discussion #1

QUESTION COMMANDER

Choose ONE of the four questions on your job sheet.

First, explain the directions on your sheet to other group members.

Then, read your thinking question and share your possible answers with details from the story.

Encourage other members to discuss their thoughts on your question and possible answer.

Literature Circles Discussion #1

QUESTION COMMANDER

Choose ONE of the four questions on your job sheet.

First, explain the directions on your sheet to other group members.

Then, read your thinking question and share your possible answers with details from the story.

Encourage other members to discuss their thoughts on your question and possible answer.

Literature Circles Discussion #1

QUESTION COMMANDER

Choose ONE of the four questions on your job sheet.

First, explain the directions on your sheet to other group members.

Then, read your thinking question and share your possible answers with details from the story.

Encourage other members to discuss their thoughts on your question and possible answer.

Literature Circles Discussion #1

QUESTION COMMANDER

Choose ONE of the four questions on your job sheet.

First, explain the directions on your sheet to other group members.

Then, read your thinking question and share your possible answers with details from the story.

Encourage other members to discuss their thoughts on your question and possible answer.