

Literature Circles Discussion #1

WORD WARRIOR

Choose ONE of the four words on your job sheet.

Tell everyone in your group to turn to the page where the word is located and show them where the sentence begins. Read the sentence out loud as other members read along.

Then, share the word's part of speech (POS) in the sentence, its denotative and connotative definition (also explaining what these two words mean), your three synonyms, and the picture that you drew to remember the word.

Encourage other members to discuss their thoughts on your work.

Literature Circles Discussion #1

WORD WARRIOR

Choose ONE of the four words on your job sheet.

Tell everyone in your group to turn to the page where the word is located and show them where the sentence begins. Read the sentence out loud as other members read along.

Then, share the word's part of speech (POS) in the sentence, its denotative and connotative definition (also explaining what these two words mean), your three synonyms, and the picture that you drew to remember the word.

Encourage other members to discuss their thoughts on your work.

Literature Circles Discussion #1

WORD WARRIOR

Choose ONE of the four words on your job sheet.

Tell everyone in your group to turn to the page where the word is located and show them where the sentence begins. Read the sentence out loud as other members read along.

Then, share the word's part of speech (POS) in the sentence, its denotative and connotative definition (also explaining what these two words mean), your three synonyms, and the picture that you drew to remember the word.

Encourage other members to discuss their thoughts on your work.

Literature Circles Discussion #1

WORD WARRIOR

Choose ONE of the four words on your job sheet.

Tell everyone in your group to turn to the page where the word is located and show them where the sentence begins. Read the sentence out loud as other members read along.

Then, share the word's part of speech (POS) in the sentence, its denotative and connotative definition (also explaining what these two words mean), your three synonyms, and the picture that you drew to remember the word.

Encourage other members to discuss their thoughts on your work.

Literature Circles Discussion #1

WORD WARRIOR

Choose ONE of the four words on your job sheet.

Tell everyone in your group to turn to the page where the word is located and show them where the sentence begins. Read the sentence out loud as other members read along.

Then, share the word's part of speech (POS) in the sentence, its denotative and connotative definition (also explaining what these two words mean), your three synonyms, and the picture that you drew to remember the word.

Encourage other members to discuss their thoughts on your work.